

CENTER FOR GLOBAL POLICY

THE ROHINGYA LEGAL FORUM: THE ICJ AND THE DUTY TO PREVENT AND PUNISH THE ROHINGYA GENOCIDE

Djaouida Siaci
International lawyer & Vice President of Rohingya Support Group. Member Washington DC Bar and the Supreme Court of the United States

Keynote Speaker
Hon Ambassador David Scheffer
1st US Amb. at Large for War Crimes &
architect of the Yugoslav Tribunal

Ambassador Allan Rock
Former Att. Gen. of Canada & U.N.
Amb. Professor Int. Humanitarian Law
& Armed Conflict in Int. Law
University of Ottawa

Prof Payam Akhavan
Prof of Law at McGill
University and UN prosecutor at The Hague.

Dr Azeem Ibrahim
Chair of the Rohingya Legal Forum and Director of Displacement and Migration at the Center for Global Policy

Sareta Ashraf
Barrister, Garden Court
Chambers London. Chief Legal Analyst on the UN Commission of Inquiry on Syria

Prof John Packer
Prof. of Law & Director of the Human Rights Research and Education Centre (HREC) at University of Ottawa

The Center for Global Policy is proud to announce the launch of the Rohingya Legal Forum and publication of its first report, The International Court of Justice and the Duty to Prevent and Punish the Rohingya Genocide.

The Rohingya Legal Forum is a group of prominent international law experts and jurists who will research and develop innovative mechanisms for legal accountability on the Rohingya genocide.

Nov 4th 2019

10:30am

The Center for Global Policy

1776 Massachusetts Ave NW. Suite 120. Washington, DC, 20036